

Narrative Writing Extensions

Select a phase of your life and create a comic strip for this phase in your life.	Select a character from history or an athlete you admire. Create a journal with at least five entries that show their perspective on important events in their life.	A narrative poem is one that tells a short story. It can be written in rhyming couplets or it can have a more flexible schema. Spend some time reading narrative poems and then create your own.
Create a rubric that would be used to assess a narrative writing essay.	Use pictures to narrate a phase of your life. Select a phase in your life (use your life map) and gather pictures from that phase. Organize these pictures so that they tell about your life. You can use iphoto, keynote, or powerpoint to organize this.	Locate an image from the past that tells a story. Select a person from that picture and then share the character's thoughts and feelings, describing the events that led up to the picture, or imagining the events that followed. Create a narration to demonstrate these things. This can be done using Garage Band. Make sure to portray emotion in both what you are saying and how you are saying it.
